
The chief executive, the principal

Health and safety audits are regular and thorough; individual risk assessments take good account of the individual needs of each student. However, a minority of staff do not know the actions to take in an emergency for the few students who have been issued with a personal emergency evacuation plan (PEEP).

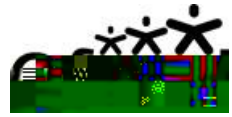
Students have a good understanding of how to keep themselves safe when using the internet, and at college. They feel safe, they adopt safe working practices in practical learning sessions and they know how, and when, to report any concerns regarding their safety.

Students make good progress in developing their personal, communication and independence skills; they learn to manage their behaviour effectively and develop their ability to interact appropriately with each other and the wider community.

Students receive good careers guidance and advice. Just over half of the students benefit

The inspection team was assisted by the college coordinator, as nominee. Inspectors took account of the provider's most recent self-assessment report and development plans, and the previous inspection report. Inspectors used group and individual interviews and telephone calls to gather the views of students and employers; these views are reflected within the report. They observed learning sessions, assessments and progress reviews. The inspection took into account all relevant provision at the provider.

Denise Olander, lead inspector	Her Majesty's Inspector
Ben Walsh	Ofsted Inspector
Lesley Talbot-Strettle	Ofsted Inspector
Dan Grant	Ofsted Inspector



Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Raising concerns and making a complaint about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/publications/complaints-about-ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

Learner View is a website where learners can tell Ofsted what they think about their college or provider. They can also see what other learners think about them too. To find out more go to www.learnerview.ofsted.gov.uk.

Employer View is a website where employers can tell Ofsted what they think about their employees' college or provider. They can also see what other employers think about them too. To find out more go to www.employerview.ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory and Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, further education and skills, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for children looked after, safeguarding and child protection.

If you would like a copy of this document in a different format, such as large print or Braille, please telephone 0300 123 1231, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

You may reuse this information (not including logos) free of charge in any format or medium, under the terms of the Open Government Licence. To view this licence, visit www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/doc/open-government